Dr. Crawford Loritts

Dr. Crawford Loritts is the Senior Pastor at Fellowship Bible Church in Roswell, GA, a suburb of Atlanta. Crawford's speaking engagements have included evangelistic outreaches, conferences, conventions, churches, colleges and seminaries. He is a frequent speaker for professional sports teams, including three Super Bowls and the NCAA Final Four Chapel. He has spoken to gatherings of senior military officers at the Pentagon. He is a featured speaker at Promise Keepers men's conferences. He and his wife, Karen, are featured speakers at Family Life's marriage and parenting conferences. He is a visiting professor at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. Crawford is also the host of "Living A Legacy", a daily radio program heard on 330 outlets by approximately 500,000 per week.

Crawford has written numerous articles and has written seven books: Leadership as an Identity, A Passionate Commitment, Never Walk Away, Make It Home Before Dark, Lessons From A Life Coach, Developing Character In Your Child (co-authored with his wife, Karen) and For A Time We Cannot See. Crawford and Karen were married in 1971 and have four grown children.
